

USAGSO Episodic Volunteer Position Description

Summary: Girl Scout Episodic Volunteers support specific events, activities, or short-term projects that help Girl Scouts grow into confident leaders and changemakers. Whether you're helping at a cookie booth, chaperoning a field trip, or leading a craft station at a troop meeting or community event, your contribution makes a lasting impact — without requiring a long-term commitment.

Expected Commitment: As-needed basis/ flexible; typically, 2-8 hours per event or activity

Training Required: Child Protection Training. ~ 1 hr. online at your own pace

Supervised by: Troop Leader, OCMT Member, Council Volunteer, or USAGSO staff

Responsibilities:

- Assist with one-time events such as:
 - Cookie sales booths
 - Troop meetings or badge activities
 - Outdoor adventures (hikes, camping, nature walks)
 - Service unit or council-wide events
 - STEM, art, or community service activities
- Supervise and engage with Girl Scouts in a positive, respectful, and supportive manner
- Ensure a safe environment in line with Girl Scout policies and procedures
- Follow guidance from troop leaders, event coordinators, or staff
- Attend brief orientation or training as needed for specific tasks

Requirements:

- Commitment to lead by the Girl Scout Promise and Law
- Maintain annual adult Girl Scout membership
- Commitment to work with all without regard to race, ethnicity/culture, religion, socio-economic status, gender, gender identity and expression, sexual orientation, or differing abilities.
- To volunteer at an overnight event or handle Girl Scout money or property, episodic volunteers must also complete a background check (within the last 3 years). See the USAGSO background check policy for more details.
