Serving Families Where They Serve

For families on the move, Girl Scouts is a constant, allowing them to pick up right where they left off. The Girl Scout Leadership Experience goes with them, no matter where they are.

As a military family, you may be no stranger to relocating, and you can rest assured Girl Scouts is along for the ride- every time. No matter where in the world your service takes you, we're at the ready with tried-and-true programming and a supportive sisterhood that allows Girl Scouts to continue their unique leadership journeys, build new friendships and enjoy a reliable, safe space of their own.

Guided by supportive volunteers at military outposts from England to Tokyo, Girl Scouts try new things, hone a range of skills and are free to just be themselves. They develop and unleash their full leadership potential through age-appropriate experiences that enable them to discover their passions, connect with others in a multicultural environment and take action to help others through the four pillars of our program:

STEM

LIFE SKILLS

OUTDOORS

ENTREPRENEURSHIP

As a Girl Scout volunteer, you also have the opportunity to impact Girl Scouts wherever you live. In addition to being nominated for a number of presidential awards, volunteers on military installations develop leadership skills, network and build their own community of friends and like-minded individuals. Whether you have the financial know-how to be a treasurer, are passionate about building the future's female leaders as a troop leader or just want to help out occasionally, there's a place for you!

Girl Scouts learn about military aircraft at the annual Girls in Aviation Day at Kadena Air Base.

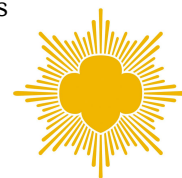

Girl Scouts around the world build skills through the Girl Scout Cookie Program.

Girl Scout Cadettes and older participate in a local robotics workshop in Germany.

The Girl Scout Gold Award is the most highly regarded award for Girl Scouts. It presents older Girl Scouts around the world with a one-of-a-kind opportunity to put their leadership skills to the test as they tackle community issues.

In addition to opening up opportunities for scholarships, preferred admission tracks for college and amazing career opportunities, Gold Award Girl Scouts are entitled to enlist at a higher pay grade if they join the military.
